

Personal Biographical Summary

FRANK J. DiVITTORIO joined SEALE & ROSS in 2007 after receiving his Juris Doctor Degree and sports law certificate from Tulane University Law School. He received his Bachelor of Science Degree in General Business from Louisiana State University.

His practice areas include Commercial and Real Estate transactions and Litigation, Family Law, Succession Litigation and Estate Planning, Debt Collection, and Bankruptcy (creditors). Frank is licensed to write title insurance policies in the State of Louisiana.

Frank is currently the Treasurer of the Florida Parishes Inns of Court, a professional society of prestige judges and lawyers with the primary objective of improving professionalism in the practice of law. Frank is an active member of the Hammond Chamber of Commerce serving on the Government Affairs Committee. He is formerly a member of the Independence Historical District Board.

Frank is also a member of the 21st Judicial District Court Bar Association and 22nd Judicial District Court Bar Association and Louisiana Bar Association.

He is admitted to practice in the State Courts of Louisiana; all United States District Courts and Bankruptcy Courts in the State of Louisiana, and the United States Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit. Some of his representative cases include:

Employment agreements, non-competition agreements:

Acadian Cypress & Hardwoods, Inc. v. Stewart, 121 So.3d 667 (La. App. 1 Cir. 2013)

Community Property Partitions:

Newman v. Newman, 2009-0062 (La. App. 1 Cir. 9/11/09)

Property Rights:

Roba, Inc. v. Courtney, 47 So.3d 509 (La. App. 1 Cir. 2010)

Construction Law:

Caminita v. Core, 66 So.3d 19 (La. App. 1 Cir. 2011)