Additional Information

Expanded Conditional Use - A conditional use, which expands allowed and conditional usages, must originate with the Zoning Commission and must comply with all procedural requirements and limitations of a rezoning. An Expanded Conditional Use is a personal right and expires upon a change in ownership of the property from the person or persons originally granted the conditional use. Those uses in this ordinance specified exclusively as conditional uses shall be considered for all purposes as Expanded Conditional Uses. Approval of any expanded conditional use shall be by passage of an ordinance by the City Council. In deliberating on any application for an expanded conditional use, the Council shall not grant approval thereof unless it makes findings based upon the evidence presented to it that each case shall indicate all of the following:

1. The permit, if granted, will not cause any diminution or depreciation of property values of any surrounding property or will not alter the essential character of the locality.
2. The permit, if granted, will tend to preserve and advance the prosperity and general welfare of the neighborhood and community.
3. The granting of the expanded conditional use will not be detrimental to the public welfare or seriously affect or be injurious to other property or improvements in the neighborhood in which the property is located, in that it will not impair an adequate supply of light and air, or increase substantially the congestion in the public streets, create a traffic hazard, or affect or overburden existing drainage or sewerage systems, or endanger the public safety, nor cause serious annoyance or injury to occupants of adjoining premises by reason of emission of odors, fumes, gasses, dust, smoke, noise or vibration, light or glare or other nuisances.

City Planner Recommendation:

Staff will recommend approval based on the building inspector inspection, regarding condition of the mobile home.
